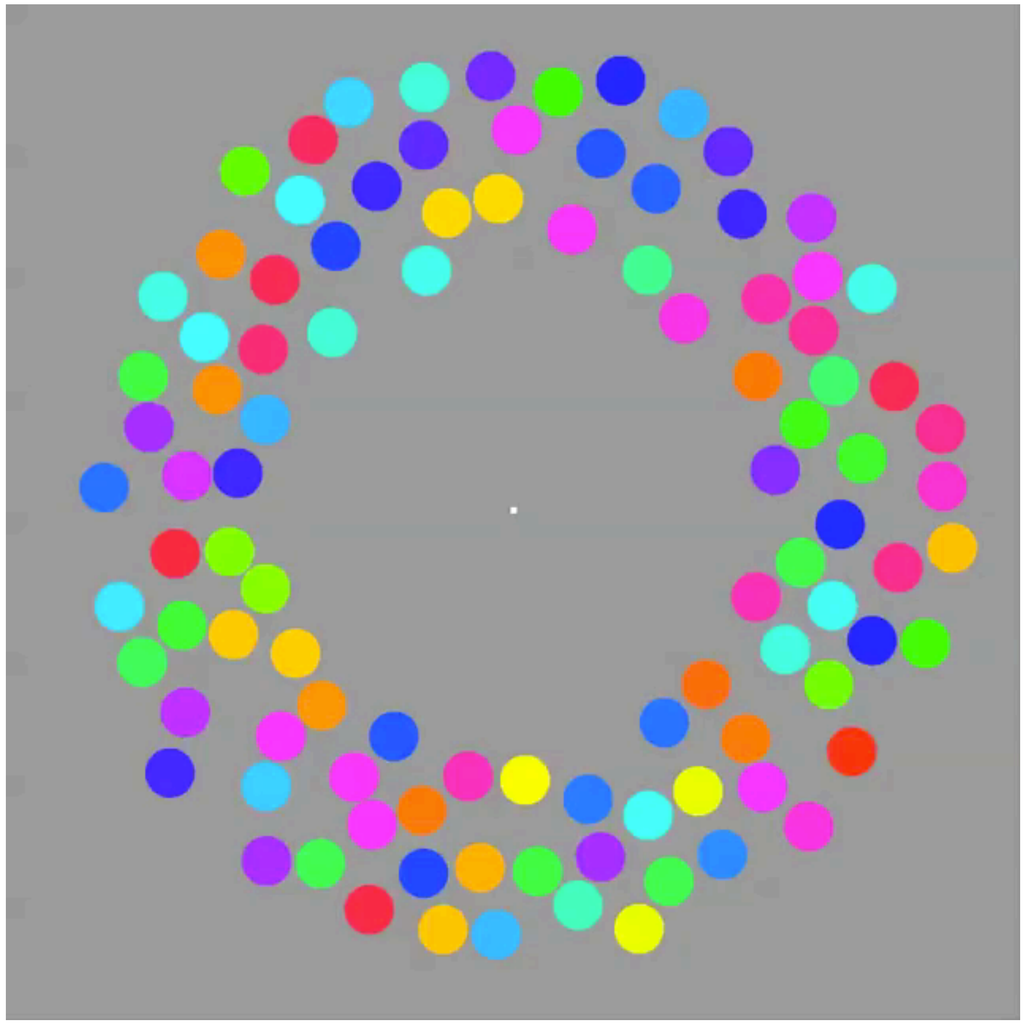
Phenomenon A

Silencing by motion



Suchow, J.W. & Alvarez, G.A. (2011)
Motion silences awareness of visual change
Current Biology, 21(2), 140-143

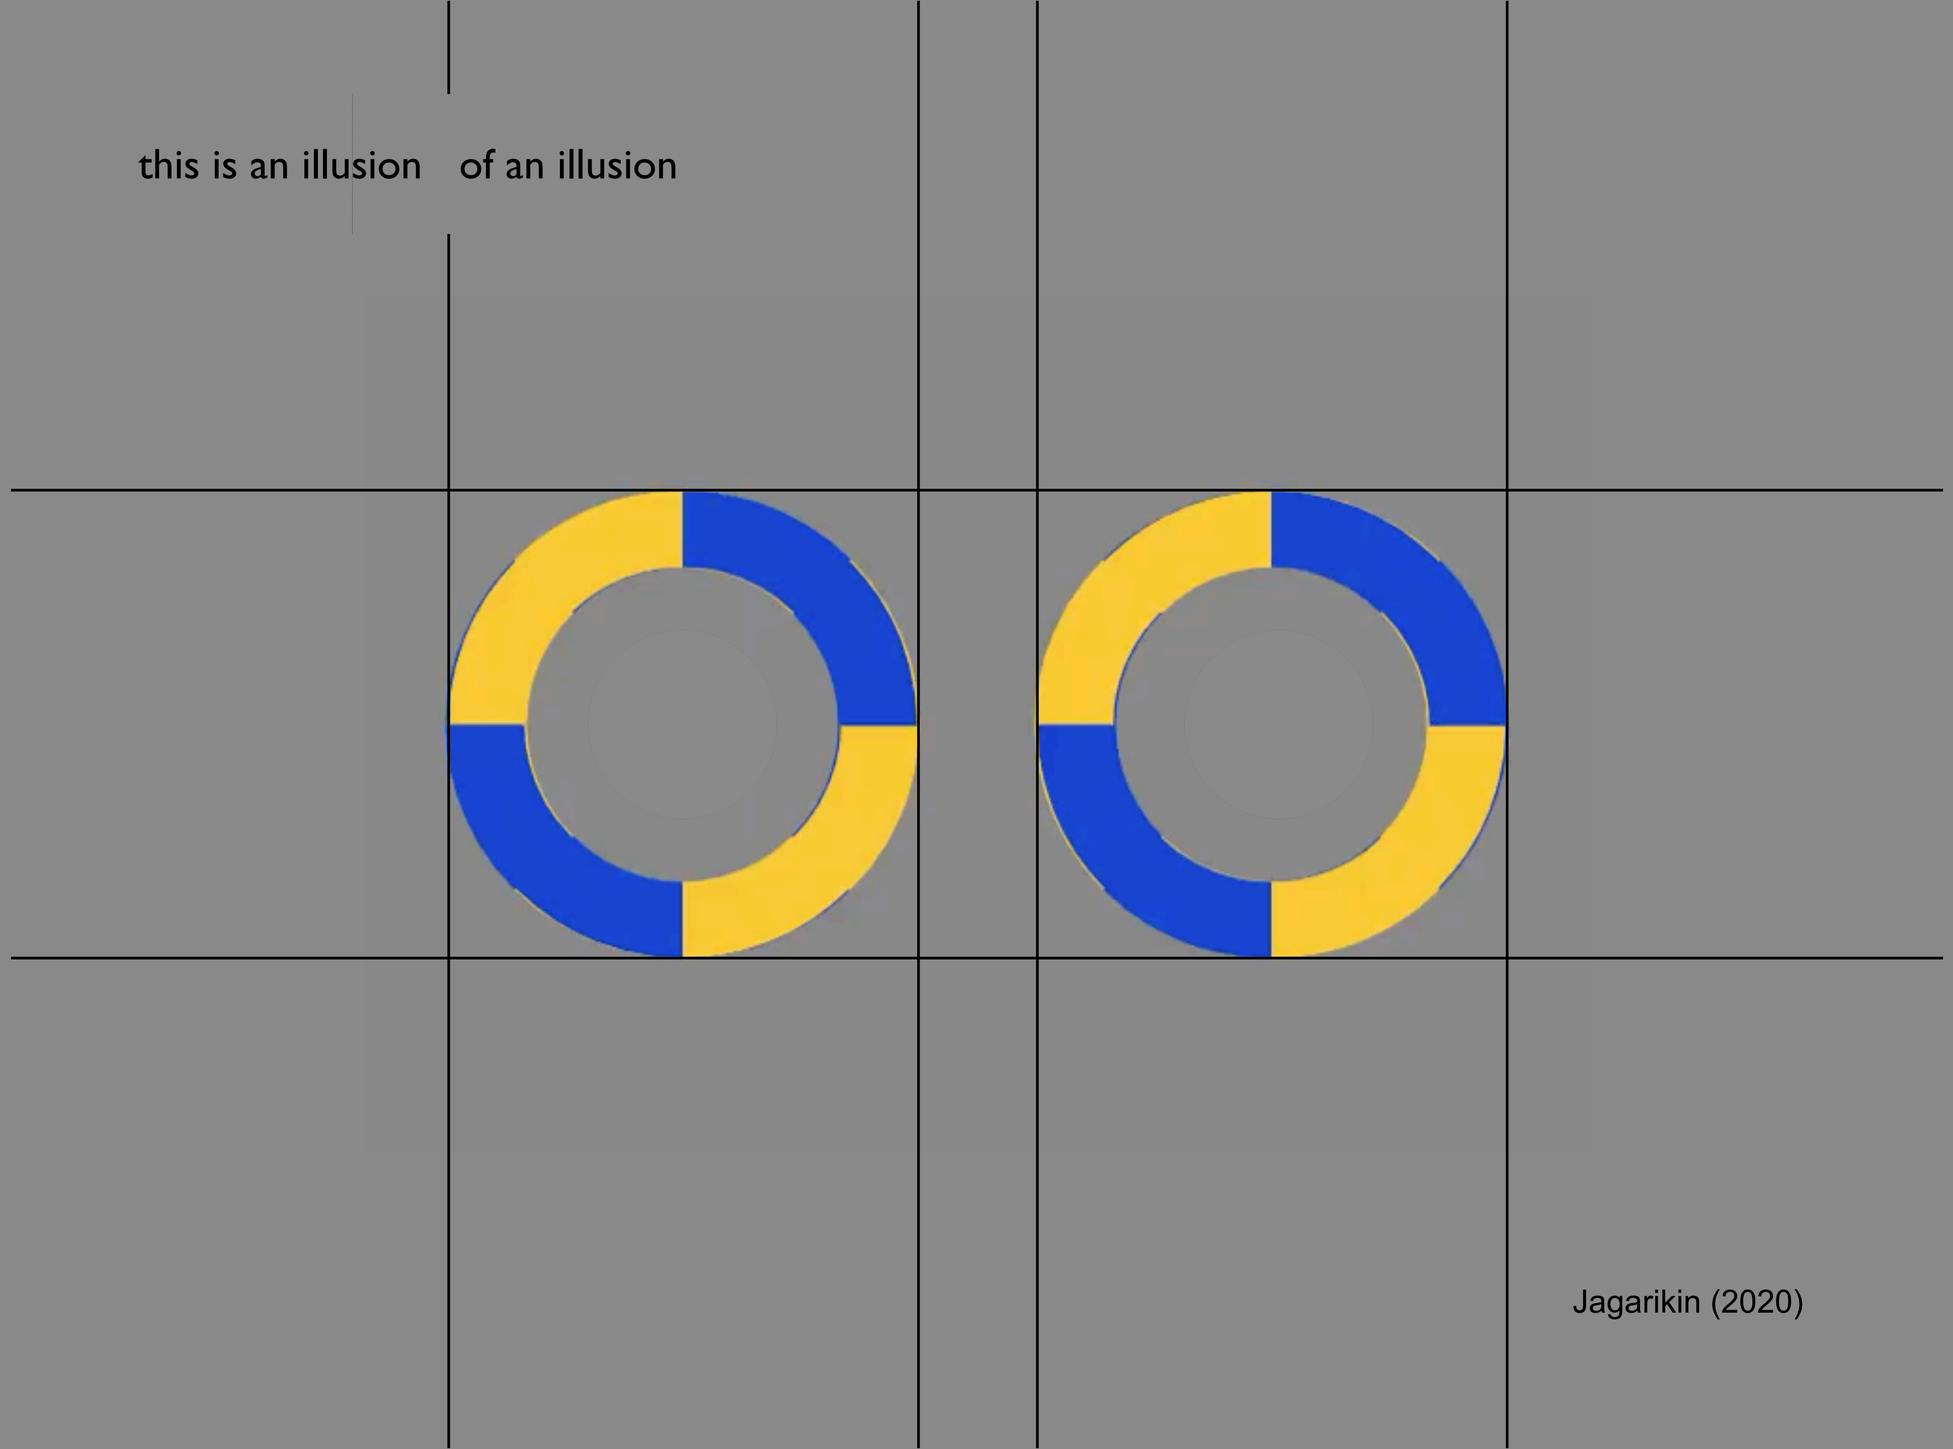
Phenomenon B

Flashed face distortion effect

Tangen, J. M., Murphy, S. C., & Thompson, M. B. (2011)
Flashed face distortion effect: Grotesque faces from relative spaces
Perception, 40, 628-630

Phenomenon C

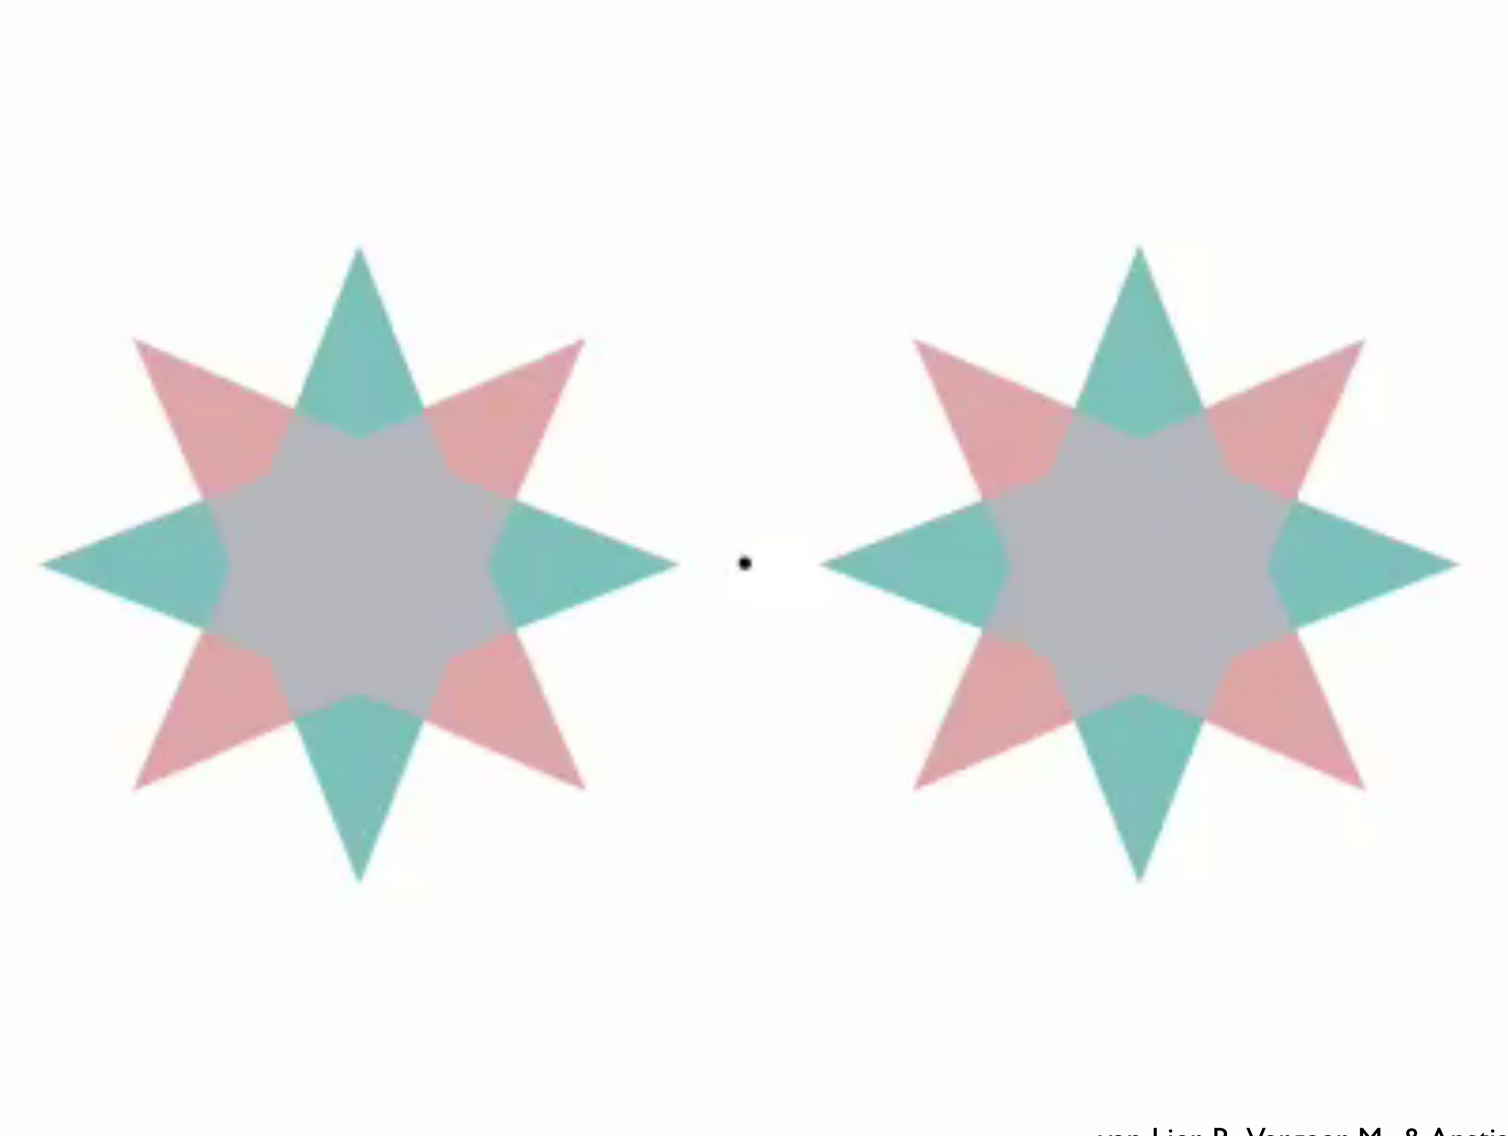
this is an illusion of an illusion



Jagarikin (2020)

Phenomenon D

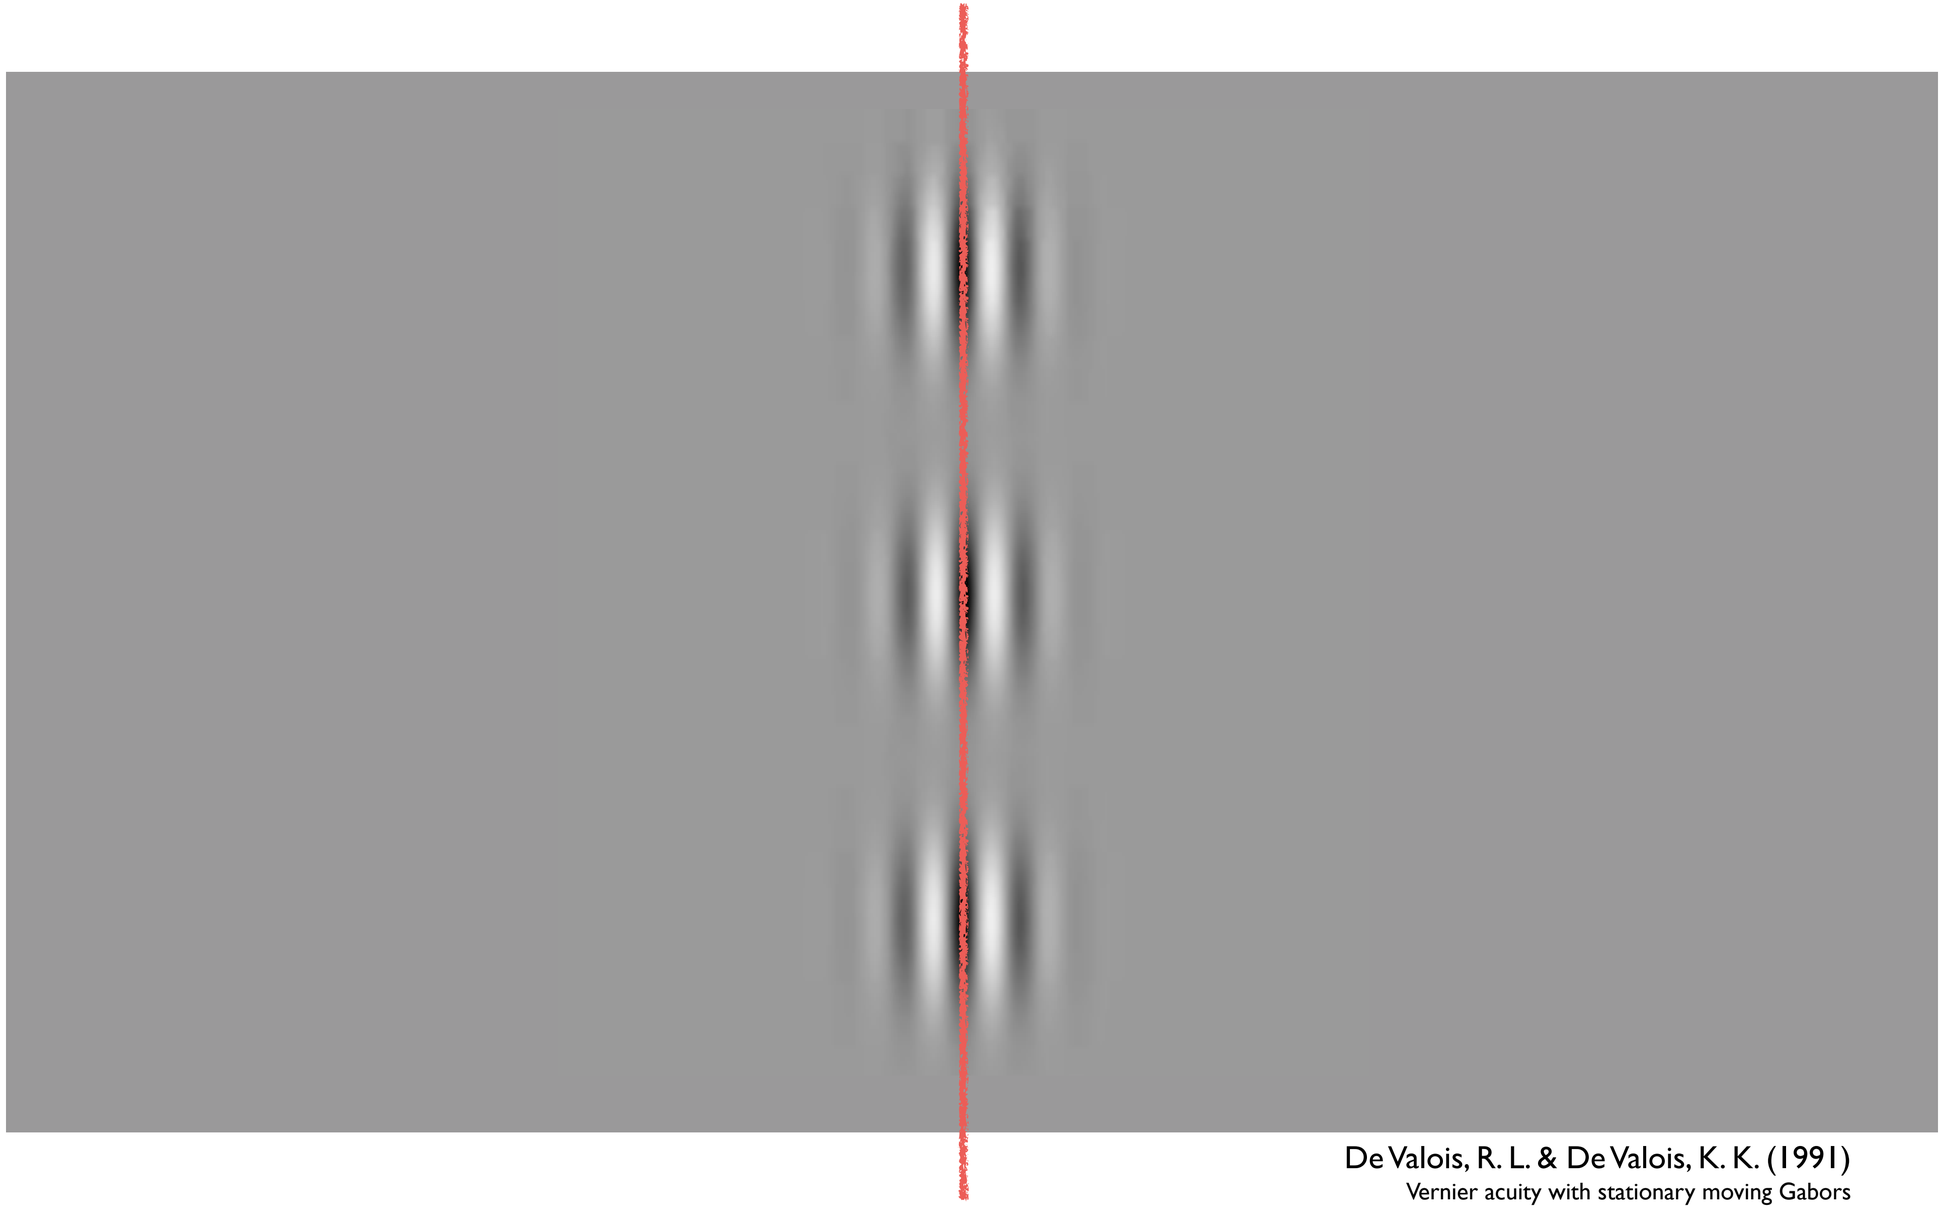
colour adaptation produces complementary colour afterimages



van Lier, R., Vergeer, M., & Anstis, S. (2009)
Filling-in afterimage colors between the lines
Current Biology, 19(8), R323–R324

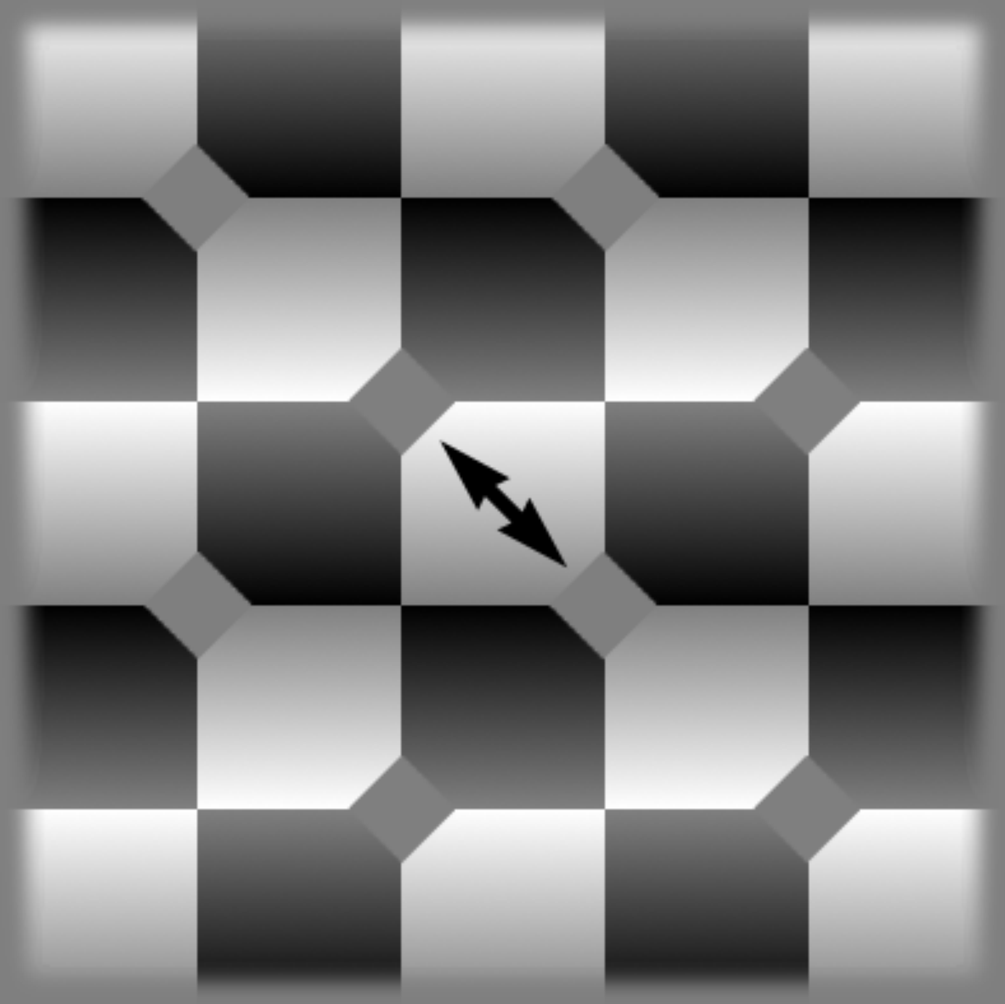
Phenomenon E

Motion-Induced Position Bias



De Valois, R. L. & De Valois, K. K. (1991)
Vernier acuity with stationary moving Gabors
Vision Research, 31, 1619-1626.

Phenomenon F



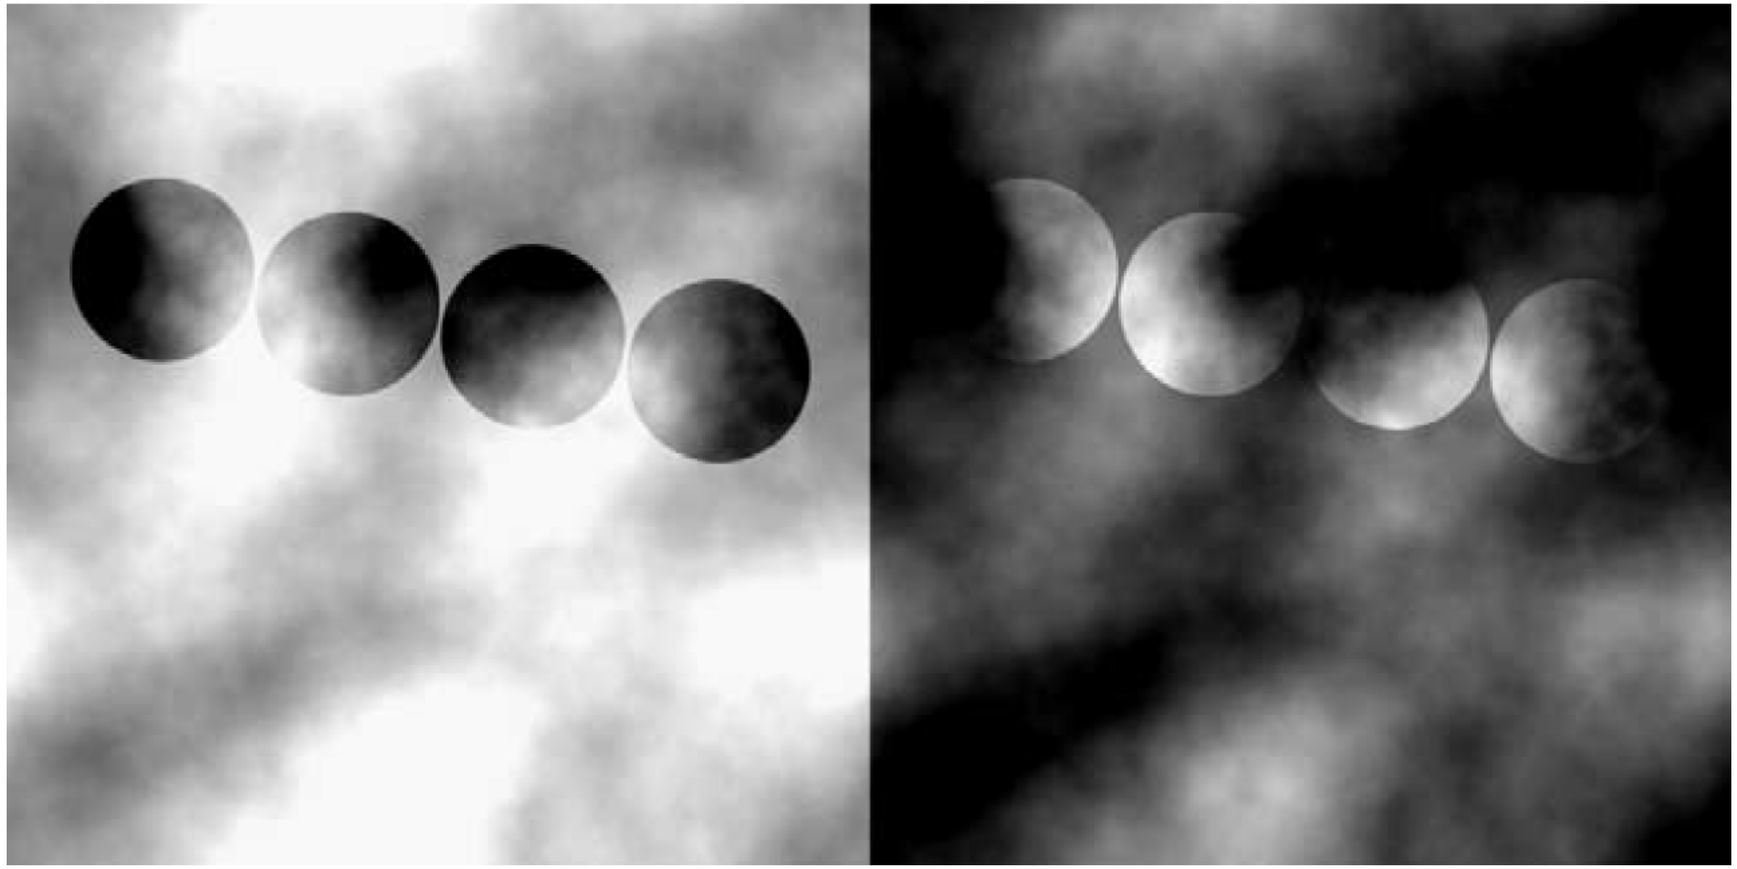
Mamassian, P. (in preparation)
Apparent motion from apparent lightness
VSS 2001

Phenomenon G

Effet du contexte sur la perception de la luminosité

Anderson, B. L. & Winawer, J. (2005)
Image segmentation and lightness perception
Nature, 434, 79-83

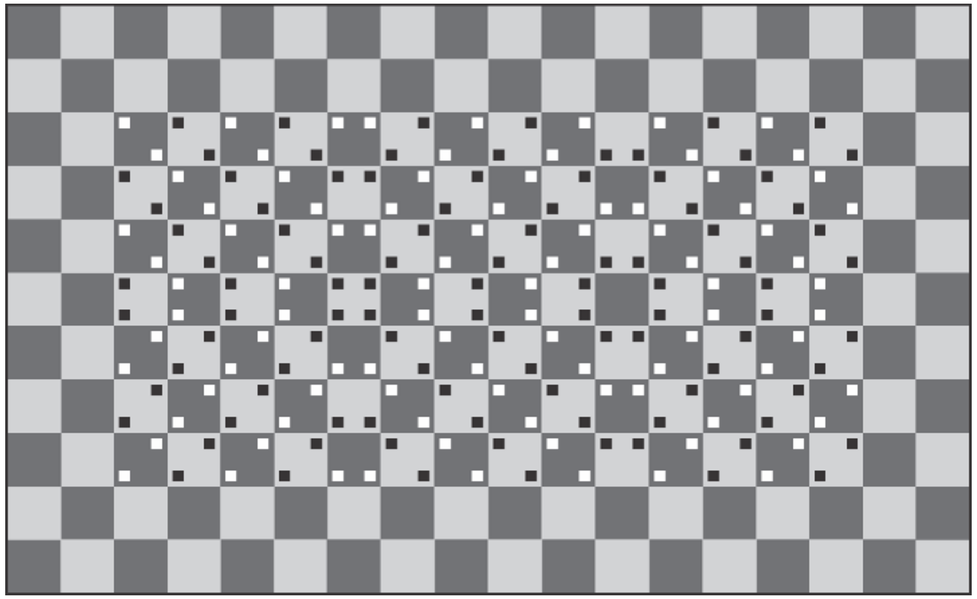
Effet du contexte sur la perception de la luminosité

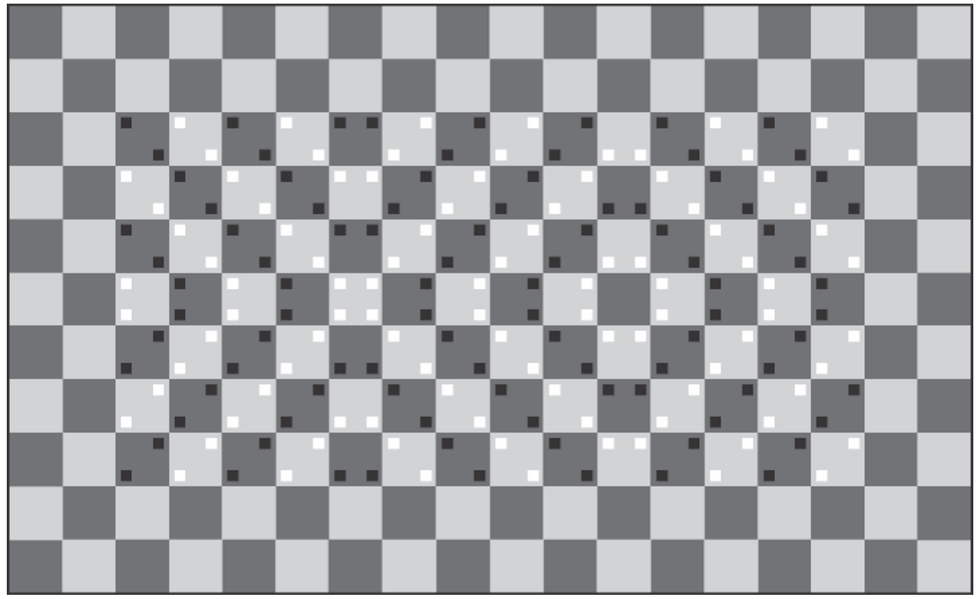


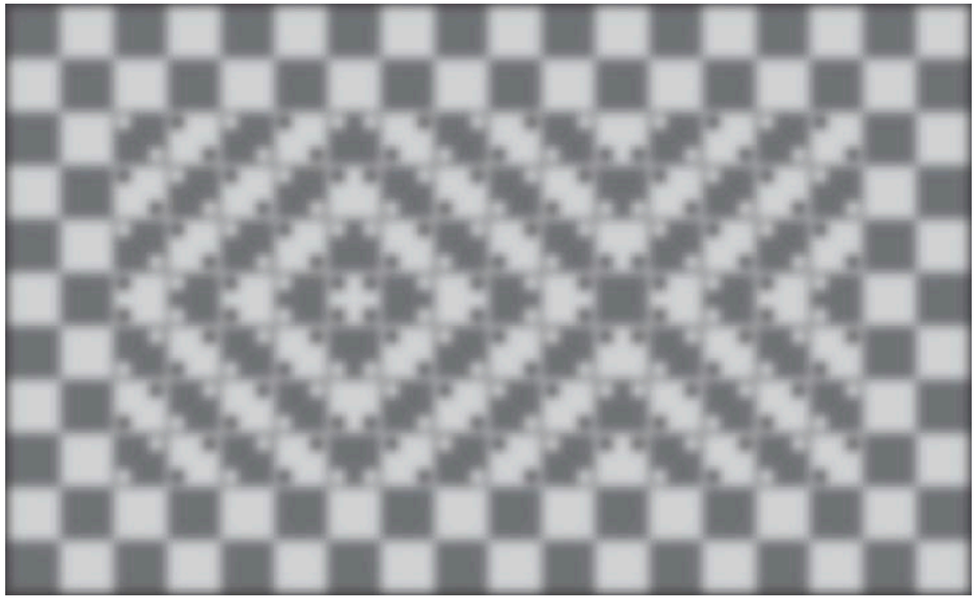
Anderson, B. L. & Winawer, J. (2005)
Image segmentation and lightness perception
Nature, 434, 79-83

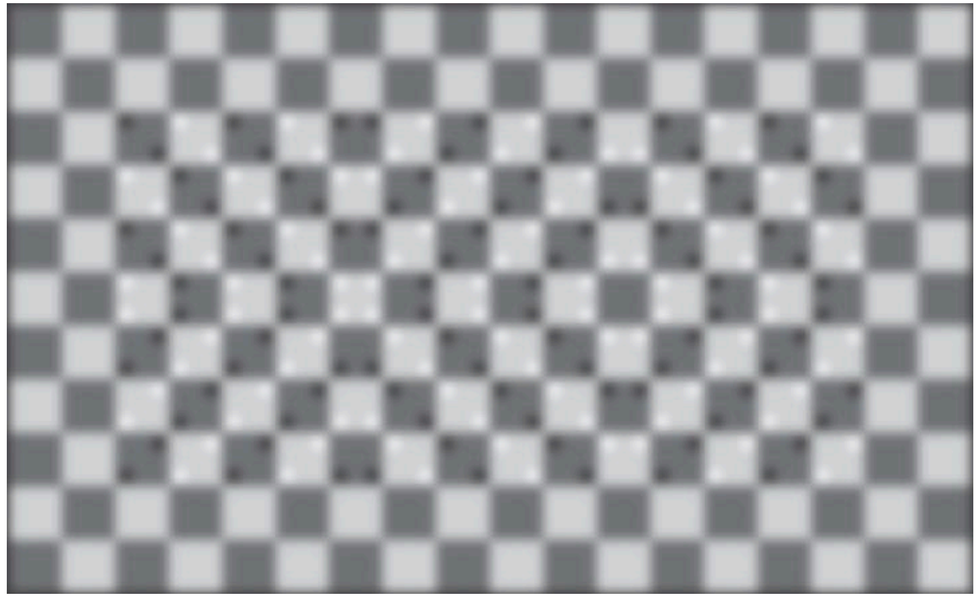
Phenomenon H

Orientation deformation





Todorović, D. (2021)
Polarity-dependent orientation illusions: Review, model, and simulations
Vision Research, 189, 54–80




Orientation deformation
